

DEACON TANNIS E. VAUGHN

Director

Deacon Tannis Vaughn the newly appointed director of the Int. COOLJC Brotherhood Council has been married to Missionary Marchelle Vaughn for 34 years. They have 2 children; Shannon & Ieasha, & 2 Grandchildren; Akilah & Madison.

Deacon Vaughn has a long history of administration within the Church & the COOLJC. In his youth he served as a Local & Diocesan President in the State of Ohio. He also served as an Int. ABYPU Regional Coordinator (then Region 5 – Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, & Indiana). Finally, concluding with 10 years' service as an International officer in the ABYPU; 1 term as Sgt. at Arms, & 2 terms as Vice-President.

Deacon Vaughn had a long and illustrious career in the Columbus Division of Fire. He received many awards including; the Firefighter of the month twice, 2 Battalion Chief Accommodations, the Medal of Merit, and was recognized in IAFF (The International Association of Professional Firefighters) national publication Firehouse magazine. During his 34 years with the division, he spent 30 years in EMS where he became; a Fire Instructor, (teaching structural firefighting) a State Certified EMS instructor, and an In-Charge Medic. In the later part of his career he helped develop and ran the Infectious Disease dept., and appeared in 2 TV commercials representing the division.

He currently works as an assistant to the Int. Union of Deacons President, as well as serving as one of the Region 6 assistant coordinators. He is also the Executive Secretary for the Ohio Diocese. As well as the current chairman of the Rehoboth Temple Church of Christ Deacon Board.